ABU Prizes 2022 Contest Rules

Article 1 Preface

In 1964, the 1st General Assembly of the Asia-Pacific Broadcasting Union (ABU), then known as Asian Broadcasting Union, approved the establishment of an international competition for radio and TV programmes titled the 'ABU Prizes'. During the 48th General Assembly (2011), the ABU adopted a resolution empowering a working party to approve changes in the rules of the ABU Prizes in line with the ABU's objective of promoting excellence in broadcasting.

The ABU Prizes was decided to be held as an annual event and shall be governed in accordance with the terms stated as below under the Contest Rules.

Article 2 Objective

The ABU Prizes aims to promote the excellence in content production in order to raise educational and cultural standards and to strengthen international understanding among the people of the ABU member countries and regions.

Article 3 Categories

The categories for awarding separate prizes are as follows:

- i. Each of the seven (7) categories for radio programmes
- ii. Each of the seven (7) categories for TV programmes
- iii. Digital Media category for online contents

RADIO CATEGORIES:

#	CATEGORY	DESCRIPTION
1	Drama	A single episode drama or one episode of a series. Each organization is eligible to enter two items in this category: one short-form drama (15 minutes and under) and one long-form drama (16-60 minutes).
2	Podcast	An audio feature (or one episode of a series) made specifically for listening on demand from online. Entries should be story-driven (i.e. not a news report or single interview), demonstrating the special qualities of podcasting to connect to individual listeners.
